IN THE MATTER OF THE ONTARIO HERITAGE ACT, 1974
S.O. CHAPTER 122

F

AND IN THE MATTER OF THE LANDS AND PREMISES KNOWN MUNICIPALLY AS 123 MAIN STREET, UNIONVILLE, IN THE TOWN OF MARKHAM, IN THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DESIGNATE

TO: [REDACTED]
123 Main Street
Unionville, Ontario

Ontario Heritage Foundation

Take notice that the Council of the Corporation of the Town of Markham on the 14TH day of JUNE, 1977, decided to designate the lands and premises, known municipally as 123 Main Street, Unionville, Ontario, as a property of architectural value or interest under The Ontario Heritage Act, 1974, S.O. Chapter 122.

Short Statement of the Reasons for the Proposed Designation:

Originally owned by Esther Summerfeldt and built for her by George Robinson in 1879, 123 Main Street in Unionville, Ontario, is recommended for designation for architectural reasons as being one of the few buildings executed in the Second Empire Style in the village of Unionville. The house is L-shaped in plan with a rear wing. Its second storey is lighted by dormer windows which are capped in gable fashion with decorated bargeboard. The roof is a four sided mansard type with a slight belcast eave. It supports a trim of scalloped bargeboard and brackets around parts of the perimeter of the eaves. The profile of the individual bracket reveals an ornate attempt to simulate the curve of the bargeboard itself. The roof of the principle verandah on the western facade takes the slope of the popular tent style. From its turned supporting columns, decorative arches spring into two separate arcs. An added feature, on the south wall of the house, is a one storey bay window that carries out its decorative elements in the same manner as the rest of the house.

Notice of objection to the designation may be served on the Clerk within thirty days of the 5TH day of OCTOBER, 1977.

DATED at MARKHAM this 5TH day of OCTOBER, 1977.

Diane Smith
Clerk
