IN THE MATTER OF THE ONTARIO HERITAGE ACT, 1974

AND IN THE MATTER OF THE LANDS AND PREMISES KNOWN MUNICIPALLY AS 206 MAIN STREET, UNIONVILLE, IN THE TOWN OF MARKHAM, IN THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DESIGNATE

TO: [REDACTED]
206 Main Street
Unionville, Ontario

Ontario Heritage Foundation

Take notice that the Council of the Corporation of the Town of Markham on the 14TH day of JUNE, 1977, decided to designate the lands and buildings, known municipally as 206 Main Street, Unionville, Ontario, as a property of architectural and historical value or interest under The Ontario Heritage Act, 1974, S.O. Chapter 122.

Short Statement of the Reasons for the Proposed Designation:

The adobe brick dwelling located at 206 Main Street, Unionville, Ontario, is recommended for designation for architectural and historical reasons. It is believed to be the oldest remaining house in the former village of Unionville as it was constructed in 1825 by a member of the pioneer Eckhardt family. The adobe brick was an early type of building material that was rarely used in the municipality; the adobe bricks were later covered by stucco and fired bricks.

This one-storey, square house is three bays wide and is a fine example of the very popular Ontario Cottage style. In the front, which faces east, the openings are all very generous. The Neo-classical porch has a shallow wall relief neatly constructed with a shelf entablature and four square pilasters, two on either side of the main door. Between each pair of pilasters there are recessed side lights. The windows flanking the entranceway are Venetian ones with side lights. The roof is a low hipped one with a chimney located on the north wall and another on the south wall. Under the eaves, there is a narrow band of unadorned frieze.

Notice of objection to the designation may be served on the Clerk within thirty days of the 10TH day of AUGUST, 1977.

DATED at MARKHAM this 10TH day of AUGUST, 1977.

Diane Smith
Clerk
