Moore, carpenter, on Lot 18 of the Holmes Survey; built by Mr. Moore for the use of himself and his family; James Moore's family included Thomas Moore, who worked originally as a printer with the Beacon and, some time later, with the New York Herald. House occupied by two families (Moore family and Fisher family, 1869-1967); because of the length of these residencies it seems reasonable to assume that the house would have become a recognized landmark in the neighbourhood.
