SCHEDULE "A"Reasons for Designation (Statement of Significance): 21 and 23 Howard Street*William McBean Stores*Description

The properties at 21 and 23 Howard Street are worthy of designation under Part IV, Section 29 of the Ontario Heritage Act for their cultural heritage value, and meet the criteria for municipal designation prescribed by the Province of Ontario under the categories of design and contextual value. Located on the southeast corner of Howard Street and Bleecker Street, the William McBean Stores (1876) at #21 and 23 Howard Street occupy a 2½-storey commercial building. The properties were listed on the City of Toronto Inventory of Heritage Properties in 1974.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value

Contextually, the properties at 21 and 23 Howard Street are integral parts of the collection of surviving heritage buildings dating to the late 19th and early 20th centuries that characterizes the Howard Street neighbourhood as it originated and evolved as a desirable upscale residential enclave southeast of Sherbourne Street and Bloor Street East. With the neighbouring William McBean Houses at 25-35 Howard Street, the William McBean Stores are historically and visually linked to their surroundings as the oldest surviving buildings of their type in the neighbourhood and the only heritage properties remaining on the south side of Howard Street between Sherbourne Street and Parliament Street.

The William McBean Stores have design value as rare examples of late 19th century commercial buildings with Second Empire styling in the Howard Street neighbourhood. As one of the most popular architectural styles of the era, the William McBean Stores display the distinctive mansard roofs that distinguish Second Empire buildings, along with the colourful and appealing pattern brick detailing. The commercial buildings at 21 and 23 Howard Street are part of a group of connected buildings on the south side of Howard Street, extending east of Bleecker Street, where three pairs of semi-detached houses at #35-35 Howard Street are placed east of the William McBean Stores.

Heritage Attributes

The heritage attributes of the properties at 21 and 23 Howard Street are:

- The commercial buildings that are attached to the west end of the trio of semi-detached house form buildings at 25-27, 29-31 and 33-35 Howard Street (where the west wall of the semi-attached house form building at #25 Howard Street abuts the east wall of #23 Howard Street).
- The scale, form and massing of the 2½-storey rectangular plan with a bevelled northwest corner.
- The red brick cladding, with brick, stone and wood trim, including contrasting buff brick applied for the quoins and the door and window detailing.

- The mansard roof with decorative slate shingles, round-headed dormers with wood detailing, and the extended cornice with brackets.
- Above the first-floor storefront and cornice on the north elevation and corner, and along the west wall on Bleeker Street, the round-arched openings with hood moulds, keystones, corbels, and bracketed sills.
- The placement of the building on the southeast corner of Howard Street and Bleeker Street, where the north and west walls are angled in relation to the adjoining streets.
