REASONS FOR THE PROPOSED DESIGNATION

Township of Brock (Thorah): THE OLD STONE CHURCH

The property as above described, known as the Old Stone Church, is recommended for designation for architectural and historical value and interest. The church sits on a delineated piece of property 155 feet wide, fronting on the 5th Concession of the former Township of Thorah, in the County of Ontario, now in the Township of Brock, in the Regional Municipality of Durham, Province of Ontario. Its uniqueness is compounded by the fact that it is still surrounded by its original burying ground containing some of the earliest tombstones in the district. Begun in 1840, the handsomely proportioned, plain stone, late Georgian Church, its original exterior and interior intact, is a unique and rare surviving example of its type in the province. No modifications of any note have been made to this building since 1860 when the three-sided balcony was completed.

Important features include: the fine limestone work interspersed with field stone, the high slim muntined double-hung windows with semi-circular top panels, the uniquely embellished cast iron stoves, and the finely crafted interior millwork.
