HERITAGE POLICY BRANCH

Dear Sir:

SUBJECT: Intention to Designate 2477 Glenwood School Drive Pursuant to the Ontario Heritage Act
File: 501-06

The Council of the Corporation of the City of Burlington at its regular meeting held on Monday, May 10, 1993, enacted the following resolution having reference to Planning and Development Committee Item No. PD-169-93:

THAT pursuant to the terms of the Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. O.18, as amended, the property known as 2477 Glenwood School Drive be designated as a structure of historical and architectural significance; and that the City Clerk be authorized and directed to so notify the owners of 2477 Glenwood School Drive and the Ontario Heritage Foundation of the municipality's intention to designate;

and that the City Clerk be further directed to place the necessary advertisements and prepare the documents related thereto.

In accordance with the provision of the Ontario Heritage Act, I have notified the owners of the property of the City's intention to designate and the attached notice of intention will appear in the Burlington Spectator on May 13, 20 and 27, 1993.

If you have any questions about the process for designating this property, please contact Linda Bowles, Assistant Clerk, at 335-7749.

Yours truly,

Helen MacRae

INFORMATION SERVICES, AND CITY CLERK

SCHEDULE A

Locust Lodge, built circa 1838 by James Wilson, is one of the oldest farm houses in Burlington. It was constructed of local limestone, probably by the stonemason who built two other houses on the Guelph Line at about the same time: Ireland House and the Fisher homestead, Shady Cottage.
