NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DESIGNATE PROPERTY OF CULTURAL HERITAGE VALUE OR INTEREST

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of The Corporation of the City of London intends to designate as a property of cultural heritage value or interest the following property in accordance with the Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1990:

Property Description

36 Pegler Street

Publication Date

December 5, 2019

Last Date for Objection

January 6, 2020

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

Legal Description

Part Lots 3 and 4, s/s Hamilton Road and Lot 6, e/s Pegler Street, Plan 318(3rd), designated as Part 1, 33R-17045, London

Description of Property

The property at 36 Pegler Street is located on the east side of Pegler Street just south of Hamilton Road. The property includes a house, located to the southern portion of the property with a driveway at the north. The house was constructed in 1897 and was first occupied by the Warren family.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

The property at 36 Pegler Street is of significant cultural heritage value or interest because of its physical/design values, its historical/associative values, and its contextual values.

The property at 36 Pegler Street is a representative example of the Queen Anne Revival architectural style, with expression of influences from the East Lake School, in East London. The Queen Anne Revival architectural style is demonstrated in the form, massing, and detailing of the home at 36 Pegler Street. While the Queen Anne Revival architectural style is common in London, the execution of the detailing of the building, particularly its demonstrated expression of influence from the East Lake School, distinguishes the property at 36 Pegler Street from other examples of the Queen Anne Revival architectural style. The property at 36 Pegler Street demonstrates a high degree of authenticity as a representative example of a Queen Anne home in London as its heritage attributes are accurately displayed. The property at 36 Pegler Street has a high degree of integrity, as the property's heritage attributes have been preserved and continue to support the cultural heritage value of the property.

A concentration of decorative elements applied to the home at 36 Pegler Street demonstrates the high degree of craftsmanship and artistic merit, particularly as it executes the Queen Anne Revival architectural style. In particular, the applied wooden details of the gable, the fretwork of the porch, and the stained glass windows (particularly the front window) demonstrate a high degree of craftsmanship and artistic merits with excellent integrity. The property at 36 Pegler Street also demonstrates a higher degree of applied detail than found on nearby properties of the same vintage.

The property at 36 Pegler Street has the potential to yield information related to an understanding of the history and evolution of East London and the Hamilton Road area as it relates to Victorian period development that characterizes the area's development.

The property at 36 Pegler Street defines the character of Pegler Street, particularly as a relic of the former residential character of the east side of Pegler Street near Hamilton Road.

The property at 36 Pegler Street is historically linked to the nearby properties at 23 Pegler Street and 35 Pegler Street, as the buildings located on these properties were constructed for children of Charles Warren who lived at 36 Pegler Street prior to their construction.

Heritage Attributes

Heritage attributes which support and contribute to the cultural heritage value or interest of this property include:

- Form, scale, and massing of the one-and-a-half storey L-plan residential building
