THE ACT to provide for the Conservation, Protection and Preservation of the Heritage of Ontario R.S.O. 1974 Chapter 122.

THE COURT HOUSE SQUARE, SIMCOE, ONTARIO

DESIGNATION OF PROPERTY - REASONS

1. The property is known as the Court House Square, being Block 94, Reg. Plan 182, Town of Simcoe bounded by Colborne, Lot, Talbot and Court Streets in the Town of Simcoe and on which are situated the former Court House, Registry Office and Crown Attorney buildings of the former County of Norfolk.
2. The square has been the site of judicial and municipal buildings of the former County of Norfolk since 1837. The present buildings thereon were erected in 1861 (Crown Attorney building and former Registry Office), in 1863 (Court House) and in 1893 (Registry Office). The buildings have been deemed structurally sound by architectural studies and it is desired to preserve the site and restore these buildings for municipal administration purposes in keeping with the historic tradition of their former uses. The plan is to meet the objectives of the Ontario Heritage Foundation in the preservation, restoration and re-use of this significant historical and architectural landmark in the Town of Simcoe.
