To Whom It May Concern:

Re: Request to Withdraw Proposed Heritage Designation of 136 West Street North

This is to advise that the proposed designation of 136 West Street North in the City of Orillia, also known as the Elizabeth Wyn Wood House, has been withdrawn. An objection has been received from the current property owner requesting that the proposal to designate be withdrawn at this time, and to that end, City Council adopted the following recommendation as presented by the City's Municipal Heritage Committee at its meeting held on January 20, 2020:

"THAT as recommended in Report MHC-20-01 dated January 7, 2020 from the Municipal Heritage Committee, the proposal to designate the property located at 136 West Street North, known as the "Wood House", as a property of cultural heritage value under Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act, be withdrawn at this time."

A copy of the report referred to above is attached for further information and reference.

Regards,

Megan Williams,
Deputy Clerk.
