REASON FOR DESIGNATION

Architectural Design or Physical Value:

The exterior of this Romanesque style church is red brick with a rusticated concrete foundation and accents. It is adorned with asymmetrical towers of Scottish baronial influence and a variety of arched windows, Gothic-influenced peaked windows and decorative brick and limestone roofline cornices.

Inside the church, stunning curved wooden pews are located on the main and balcony levels. The sides of the pews feature a panel and rococo arm designs along the arm rests. The interior also features a lofty vaulted tin ceiling. Memorial Windows contribute to the ambience of the church's interior. These windows, purchased from the Toronto Plate Glass Importing Company depict religious symbolism and were selected from the "Book of Designs". The large west window is entitled "The Parable of the Sower" and the large east window is titled "Glory to God in the Highest".

Historical Significance:

The Oakwood United Church has been a defining aspect of the Oakwood community, continuing to offer religious services to the residents of Oakwood and nearby townships. The land for the church was donated by James Thorndyke and the church came into fruition in 1909 when the minister, Mr. Limbert, put efforts into its construction. The church was modelled after one that had been built in Fenelon Falls, with one exception; this church would have two main entrances. The church was officially opened on November 21, 1912 and the first church service was held on Sunday November 24th with Reverend Dr. A. C. Crews preaching the sermon.
