SCHEDULE "B" (By-law #83-131)

The aforesaid real property is designated as being of historical and architectural value or interest, for reasons listed below:

ST. ANDREWS' PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH AND CEMETERY

Scottish settlers in the 1830's began a congregation, holding services in a barn, then a small log building on the property adjacent to where the stone church was built in 1853. The building is a classic example of early protestant church architecture, one of the few such "pioneer" churches remaining. It was built with local fieldstones, and includes a medium gable roof, gothic windows, and corniced boxed eaves.
