Notice: Designation of Property under the Ontario Heritage Act

Take Notice that the Council of the City of Kawartha Lakes, on June 21, 2022 passed By-law 2022-108 to designate the following property under Section 29 of the Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1990, c.18, as a property of cultural heritage value or interest:

15 Dodd Street, Fenelon Falls
PT LT 13 N/S LOUISA ST PL 17 FENELON PT 1, 57R2322

Statement of Reasons for Designation

Design and Physical Value

The property is a representative example of a Regency-style cottage in Fenelon Falls. Constructed around 1873 as a private residence, the house displays the key architectural characteristics of this style which was at the height of its popularity in Ontario in the early nineteenth century but remained a well-used residential style until the end of the century. These features include its hipped roof, square plan, one-storey elevation, central entrances on both the front and rear of the building, and the French doors on the rear of the house. It is also one of only a few examples of this style in the community as it was not used as extensively in Kawartha Lakes as in other parts of the province.

Historical and Associative Value

15 Dodd Street has historical and associative value as a former cottage hospital which operated in Fenelon Falls beginning around 1895 and in its association with prominent local doctor Archibald Wilson. The property was originally constructed as a residential dwelling but was rented by Wilson from its owner to use as a subscription-based hospital catering primarily to men working in the village from out of town. It yields information on the development of medical care in small town Ontario in the late nineteenth century. Wilson himself was also a prominent and well-known local doctor with a large and respected practice in the village and involvement in a wide range of community organizations.

Contextual Value

15 Dodd Street has contextual value as a contributing property to Dodd Street and the surrounding neighbourhood which can be identified as a mature residential neighbourhood which has evolved organically from the nineteenth century. The area in which 15 Dodd Street is located is comprised of single family residential properties of approximately one to two storeys on mid-sized lots which range in age from Victorian to modern. 15 Dodd Street fits within this pattern of development and helps contribute to the overall character and feel of the neighbourhood.
