The Corporation of the Town of Aurora

By-law Number 6518-23

Being a By-law to designate a property to be of cultural heritage value or interest (73 Wellington Street East "The Ashton House").

Whereas under subsection 29(1) of the Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. O.18, as amended, the council of a municipality may, by by-law, designate a property within the municipality to be of cultural heritage value or interest;

And whereas the Town Clerk caused notice of the intention to designate the Property to be served on the owner of the Property and the Ontario Heritage Trust and published in a newspaper having general circulation in the municipality;

Schedule “A”

Description of Property

All and singular those certain parcels or tracts of land and premises situate, lying and being in the Town of Aurora, in the Regional Municipality of York, municipally known as 73 Wellington Street East, and being composed of LT 8 S/S Wellington St PL 68 Aurora, being all of PIN 03650-0007 (LT), including the primary building thereon.

Schedule “B”

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

73 Wellington Street East is of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest based on its design and physical value, historical and associative value, and contextual value.

Design and Physical Value:

The property is a representative example of a dwelling constructed in the Gothic Revival architectural style. Architectural details indicative of the style include the dichromatic brick, quoins, steeply pitched dormer gables and lancet window openings, which are features that also display a high degree of craftsmanship and detail as part of enhancing the local streetscape. The building is a very well preserved and unique example of the style, particularly within the context of the Wellington Street East area.

Historical and Associative Value:

The building was constructed circa 1884, over 135 years ago and prior to the incorporation of the Town of Aurora. The property was originally purchased in 1874 by Seth Ashton, who was a prominent local businessman and municipal politician, who served as Councillor on the first Aurora Village Council in 1863, and also served several times as a Reeve. The property is also associated with Thomas Scrivener, who was the Town’s sole veterinarian at the beginning of the 20th century. The building is also further associated with the Lorne family, who operated a dairy business on the property between 1927 and 1944. The property has significant associations with the growth of the Town and is tied to a number of prominent local figures. The property was also recognized with and displays a heritage plaque that was granted in 1993.

Contextual Value:

The property defines, maintains and supports the historic character of the Aurora core in particular along Wellington Street East. The building provides a significant link to the early growth and development of the village area and its early history, specifically in relation to growth that occurred in and around the early commercial and residential centre of Yonge and Wellington Streets (Machell’s Corners). The building and its Gothic Revival style help tell the story of the evolution of the community, and it is in proximity to a number of other designated and listed heritage resources as an important part in supporting the character of the area.

Description of Heritage Attributes

The following provides a description of heritage attributes for the property which contribute to the reasons for which the property is of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest. Important to the preservation of the property are the original key attributes of the building that express its value, which include:

Exterior Elements

- Overall 1.5 storey massing
- Dichromatic red and buff/yellow brick with an asymmetrical 2-bay façade
- Steeply pitched paired gables at the front elevation
