TAKE NOTICE that the Council of the Corporation of the Town of Erin intends to designate the following property as being of cultural heritage value or interest under Section 29(1) of the Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1990, Chapter O.18.

74 Trafalgar Road

Description of the Property

The subject property is legally described as LOT 25, PLAN 276 (AMENDED PLAN 280), Town of Erin, with a civic address of 74 Trafalgar Road. The property is in the historic core of the settlement. It consists of a two-storey Gothic Revival residence, with a cross gable roof, constructed in 1879.

Statement of cultural heritage value or interest

74 Trafalgar Road is a representative example of the Gothic Revival style. The two-storey L-shaped plan house has a cross gable roof, large front gable end and central gable peaks which is typical of Gothic Revival structures. The dichromatic brickwork, segmentally arched window openings, and heavily decorated porch and entrance are also typical of the Gothic Revival style. The bay windows and bargeboard in the front gables add to the ornate nature of the building.

74 Trafalgar Road is associated with Alexander Hyndman, a local carpenter. Hyndman operated a planing mill and built several other extant structures located in Hillsburgh Village such as the Grand Central Hotel (1900) and the Christian Disciples Church at 72 Main Street (1906) in addition to the house at 74 Trafalgar Road.

74 Trafalgar Road is important in supporting the 19th century character of Trafalgar Road in the historic village of Hillsburgh. The streetscape is comprised of predominantly one to two-and-a-half storey residential and commercial buildings of primarily brick construction and with modest setbacks along the street. Furthermore, the stylistic similarities between properties strengthens their contribution to the historic character of the atmosphere of the area including red brick construction with dichromatic brickwork, decorative woodwork. 74 Trafalgar Road contributes to the heritage fabric of the streetscape and exhibits setback, and massing and decorative details consistent with the streetscape.
