Statements of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest
Contact heritage@burlington.ca for full document

The properties at 524, 574 and 620 Brant Street have cultural heritage value because they were designed in an architectural style representative of the early twentieth-century developments patterns that characterized Brant Street, Downtown Burlington's long-standing primary commercial artery. They have contextual value as examples of a relatively small number of historic residential buildings that survive on Brant Street from the second phase of the Apple Park Survey.

More information on the proposed designations can be viewed in the Office of the City Clerk, First Floor, City Hall, 426 Brant St., during regular business hours or can be requested electronically by emailing heritage@burlington.ca.

Any person may, within 30 days after the date of the publication of this notice, serve written notice of objection to the proposed designation, together with a statement for the objection and all relevant facts to the City Clerk, The Corporation of the City of Burlington, 426 Brant St., P.O.
