STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE REASONS FOR DESIGNATION

199 COLLEGE STREET (including entrance address at 197 College Street)

Reasons for Designation

The property at 199 College Street (including entrance address at 197 College Street) is worthy of designation under Part IV, Section 29 of the Ontario Heritage Act for its cultural heritage value, and meets Ontario Regulation 9/06, the provincial criteria prescribed for municipal designation under the categories of design/physical and contextual value.

Description

Located on the south side of the street between Henry and Beverley streets, the property at 199 College Street contains a pair of semi-detached house form buildings that were first constructed in c.1886-1887 and later converted for mixed residential and commercial uses.

The property at 199 College Street was identified for its potential cultural heritage value in the College Street Study Official Plan Amendment adopted by the City of Toronto in 2017, and listed on the Heritage Register in 2018.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value

The property at 199 College Street has design value as a surviving example of a late 19th century house form typology on College Street, west of McCaul Street, whose design is typical of the Bay-and-Gable style with its 2-1/2-storey form and massing organized as a mirrored pair of two buildings, each with two vertically-oriented bays on the primary elevation. The Bay-and-Gable style draws from popular architectural styles of the Victorian era, including the Italianate and Gothic Revival, which are evident in the cross gables with surviving decorative wood detailing. 199 College Street anchors the west end of a trio of semi-detached house form buildings that were constructed together.

Contextually, the property at 199 College Street is valued for its role in defining, supporting and maintaining the historical character of College Street, west of McCaul Street, which originally developed as a residential neighbourhood. With the property's later conversion for mixed commercial and residential uses, the buildings reflect the ongoing evolution of the thoroughfare, which has been shaped in part by the close proximity to the University of Toronto.

The buildings at 199 College Street are historically, visually and physically linked to their setting in the block on the south side of the street where they are part of a series of complementary late-19th century house form buildings adjoining both sides of the intersection with Henry Street.

- The scale, form and massing of the 2½-storey property
- The property's material palette, consisting of brick with wood and stone detailing
