STATEMENT OF CULTURAL HERITAGE VALUE OR INTEREST

Description of Property

The property at 2366 Carrington Place is located on the south side of Carrington Place, south of Lakeshore Road East. The property contains a 1974 Modern style house.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

Design and Physical Value

The subject house is a representative example of Modern residential architecture and is a rare example in Oakville as one of the few from this design and period. It is representative of the style and philosophy of Modern architectural design through many of its built elements such as its: flat roof; asymmetrical façade; use of various cladding materials on the exterior and interior such as glass, stone, and wood; split-level design; use of large glass window walls for an indoor-outdoor living space; open floor plan; minimal decoration; strong use of horizontal lines; and the integration of the landscape into the design. The house displays a high degree of craftsmanship, designed thoughtfully by renowned architect Joseph Storey, and the house displays thoughtful details about how the house integrates with the views of Lake Ontario and the use of the same materials inside and outside.

Historical and Associative Value

The subject house demonstrates and reflects the work of architect Joseph Storey, a significant Modern architect in Ontario whose work has been recognized across Canada and internationally. Storey is thought to be the architect who brought progressive, minimalist, Modern design to southwestern Ontario. His public buildings are recognizable across the southern part of the province, particularly in Chatham-Kent. Joseph Storey's architectural firm designed over 1,000 buildings over its 30 years, many of which are still architecturally significant. The subject house is a rare Storey design; it is the largest home he ever designed, the last residence he designed, and the only one in the Greater Toronto Area.

Key heritage attributes of the property at 2366 Carrington Place that exemplify its cultural heritage value as a representative example of a Modern home, as they relate to the one-storey house with walkout basement, include:

- The low, horizontal massing and asymmetrical form of the house with flat roof and deep overhangs at the rear on both the first and second storeys;

- Horizontally-laid stone cladding;
- Vertical wooden cladding; and
- Fenestration of the windows and doors.
