Re: Notice of Intention to Repeal Designation By-Law 734

Dear Ms. Semande,

Please find attached the above-noted notice related to By-Law Number 734 to Designate the Albert Gallagher House.

Notice was served via the Review Mirror, a local paper with general circulation throughout the Township of Rideau Lakes.

I've provided you with the pdf sent to the newspaper as well as the clipping of the published version.

Please advise if you require any further information.

Sincerely,

Mary Ellen Truelove

Notice of Intention to De-Designate 14 Water Street, Portland

Take notice of the Intention of the Council of The Corporation of the Township of Rideau Lakes to Rescind Bastard & South Burgess By-Law #1989-734, which designated 14 Water Street, Portland as a property of cultural heritage value, at their regular meeting on Monday, October 5, 2020.

This action was advised by the Rideau Lakes Municipal Heritage Advisory Committee since the heritage home known as the Gallagher House was lost to fire in the year 2000, rendering the resulting empty lot of no significant heritage value.

Any person may send by registered mail or deliver to the Clerk of the Township of Rideau Lakes, no later than Thursday, September 24, 2020, notice of his or her objection to the proposed action with a statement of reasons for the objection.
