SCHEDULE "A" TO BY-LAW 46-2024

In the Township of North Glengarry in the United Counties of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry, property description as follows:

53 Dominion Street North, Alexandria ON K0C 1A0

Plan 5, Part Lots 47, 48, being Part 1 on Reference Plan 14R-3686; Village of Alexandria.

SCHEDULE “B” TO BY-LAW 46-2024

STATEMENT OF CULTURAL HERITAGE VALUE OR INTEREST

Description of the Property

The subject property is a single-detached dwelling which is situated at the south-east corner of Elgin Street East and Dominion Street North. The private residence is located at 53 Dominion Street North on the east side, in the village of Alexandria.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

Design and Physical Value

53 Dominion Street North in Alexandria has design and physical value as its exterior façade represents an early example of mansard style homes in Alexandria. The two-storey, red-bricked home contains a mansard style roof with a corbel roof line and a wrap-around porch on both sides of the home with corbels around the porch posts. The building displays a high degree of craftsmanship and artistic merit.

Historical and Associative Value

This property has historical value and potential to yield information that contributes to an understanding of Alexandria and supports the character of the area.

Contextual Value

The property has contextual value because it is physically, visually and historically linked to its surroundings. The house has cultural heritage value as a physical reminder of the settlers to Alexandria. It has an important physical connection to the past. The property’s location, set relatively close to the village’s Main Street has meant that it is a familiar and noticeable site along Dominion Street and Elgin Street, acting as a signal to the area’s past.

Therefore, in addition to the design and physical value, and the historical and associative value, 53 Dominion Street in Alexandria possesses associated contextual value.

Description of Heritage Attributes

Key attributes of the property that exemplify its cultural heritage value include the following:

- Two-story Mansard style single detached dwelling;
- Traditional red-brick structure;
- Wrap-around porch on lower level;
- Corbel porch posts;
- Corbel roof line
- Mansard style roof;
- The residence was constructed in 1851.
