Description of the Property

The Hubble Hill Cemetery is a .6 acre parcel of land located on Part of Lot 19, Concession 2, in the geographic Township of Rawdon, now in the Township of Stirling-Rawdon, and known municipally as 1049 Hoards Road, and being Property Roll No. 12-20-119-015-04900-0000.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

After the end of the American Revolution (1776-83), Nehemiah Hubble, a United Empire Loyalist, was granted 200 acres of Crown land. Nehemiah and his wife Lecretia settled in Rawdon Township, then known as Upper Canada, in 1788 and raised their 13 children. After Nehemiah's death in 1859, his grandson Ruben donated the land for the cemetery.

Hubble Hill Cemetery is of cultural value as it is one of very few United Empire Loyalist family cemeteries that has been in use from the early 1900's to the present day. Gravesites found in the cemetery provide important insight into the lives of the Township of Stirling-Rawdon's inhabitants of that period.

Description of Heritage Attributes

The original markers and monuments and their variety of styles, materials and symbolism, along with the surviving inscriptions provide insight into the United Empire Loyalists who settled here and whose descendants remain today. The cemetery has a park-like setting, bordered by mature trees and delineated by a split rail fence.
