STATEMENT OF CULTURAL HERITAGE VALUE OR INTEREST

Description of Property

The subject property is located on the south side of Lakeshore Road West between Westdale Road and Wilder Drive. The property contains a one-storey frame cottage structure built in 1926 and known as the Baillie Estate Farm Manager’s Cottage.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

Design and Physical Value

The Baillie Estate Farm Manager’s Cottage has cultural heritage value for its c.1926 cottage built in the Arts & Crafts style and designed by Page & Warrington. As a reaction to the mechanization and dehumanization of the Industrial Age, the Arts & Crafts style attempted to reconnect people to nature and to the handmade. The Farm Manager’s Cottage is a humble yet eloquent example of the Arts & Crafts style. It was constructed using local, natural materials including stained wood shingles and Credit Valley stone taken from the nearby ravine. The low-sloped roof, tapered stone piers on the corners and natural wood windows and trim work connect the building to its natural surroundings. The cottage displays early 20th century craftsmanship that is visible in the stone piers, stone chimneys and multipaned wood windows.

Historical and Associative Value

The Baillie Estate Farm Manager’s Cottage has cultural heritage value for its direct associations with the Baillie family who built the structure as part of Lisonally Farm, the family estate. Lady Edith Baillie was a well-respected philanthropist who redeveloped the summer estate as a farm after the death of her financier and industrialist husband Sir Frank Baillie in 1921. Rather than focusing on making an income, the Baillies’ approach was to donate the produce and income to local hospitals, institutions and charities. The cottage is the only remaining structure from Lisonally Farm and contributes to an understanding of the farm, and of other prosperous country estates and farms constructed during this era along the lakeshore in Oakville. The property is also directly associated with Page & Warrington, a prominent Toronto firm that designed a number of Arts & Crafts style homes in Toronto’s elite residential neighbourhoods like Forest Hill and Rosedale.

Contextual Value

The Baillie Estate Farm Manager’s Cottage has contextual value as one of the last remnants of the former Lisonally Farm. The property is physically, visually and historically linked with Lakeshore Road West and the former entrance to the estate that was once in this location. For the past century, the property has been a well-known site along Lakeshore Road, a significant and historic road along Lake Ontario that has been the primary access to the town's historic lakefront estates. The property helps to maintain and support the character of this established residential neighbourhood.

Description of Heritage Attributes

Key attributes of the property which embody the cultural heritage value of the Baillie Estate Farm Manager's Cottage include the following attributes, as they relate to the original one-storey building, include its:

- Rectangular form with low-sloped hip roof with deep eaves;
- Four tapered stone piers, exposed stone foundation, and two stone chimneys constructed of Credit Valley stone laid in regular courses with a quarry cut face;
- Wood shingle cladding;
- Fenestration of the front (north) elevation;
- Two sets of multipaned wood windows with wood trim on the front (north) elevation;
- One set of multipaned wood windows with wood trim located on the northerly end of the east elevation;
- Wood front door with wood trim on north elevation; and
- Proximity to Lakeshore Road West, near the former entrance to Lisonally Farm.
