LEGAL DESCRIPTION

Description of Property

The subject property is an irregular-shaped lot located on the southwest side of Regional Road 25. The property contains a one-and-a-half storey Ontario rural one-room schoolhouse, and is legally described as “PT LT 13, CON 2 ESQ, AS IN 488762; HALTON HILLS/ESQUESING”.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

The Dufferin School at 10454 Regional Road 25 has physical and design value as a representative and rare example of a late-nineteenth-century Ontario rural one-room schoolhouse in the community of Speyside within the Town of Halton Hills. The one-and-a-half storey schoolhouse is one of the oldest frame schoolhouses in Halton Hills and features a gable roof with brick veneer cladding, multiple windows along the side elevations, and a datestone indicating the year brick veneer was introduced (c.1903). The design features influence from The School House; Its Architecture, External and Internal Arrangements and the Canadian Farmer, which published architectural plans and construction methods for grammar, intermediate, and primary schools in Canada.

The Dufferin School at 10454 Regional Road 25 has historical and associative value due to its associations with the early educational system in the community of Speyside. The student population began to grow with the establishment of the Common School Act and the Ontario School Act, which introduced rates levied to support and construct new schools and later abolished the former fees for public schools and made attendance compulsory for children ages 7 to 12. In response, many communities took advantage of these government grants to build and operate new schools.

The property also has associations with John Yaremko, who attended the University of Toronto and Osgoode Hall Law School. In 1946, he was called to the bar and was named a member of the Queen’s Counsel in 1953. In 1951, John Yaremko started his political career, being elected to Ontario’s Provincial Parliament as the first Canadian of Ukrainian descent to be elected in Eastern Canada. In 1958, Yaremko was appointed as the youngest Cabinet Minister and served in seven Ministries in the administrations of Premiers Leslie Frost, John Robarts, and Bill Davis. In total, he served in Parliament for 25 years. In addition to his political career, Yaremko was also involved in supporting fellow Ukrainians through internships and scholarships.

The Dufferin School at 10454 Regional Road 25 is important in defining, maintaining, and supporting the rural character of the area along Regional Road 25. The former Dufferin Schoolhouse is physically, visually, and historically linked to its surroundings as an early schoolhouse that serviced the local school section in Speyside for more than 80 years.
