SCHEDULE “B” TO BY-LAW NO. 2025-0047

REASONS FOR DESIGNATION

Description of Property

The subject property is an irregular-shaped lot located on the northeast side of Fifth Line. The property contains a two-storey limestone Ontario rural schoolhouse, and is legally described as “PT LT 21, CON 6 ESQ, PART 1, 20R9187 TOWN OF HALTON HILLS”.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

The Gibraltar School at 11999 Fifth Line has physical and design value as a representative example of a late-nineteenth-century vernacular Ontario rural schoolhouse in the community of Limehouse within the Town of Halton Hills. The two-storey school was constructed in 1864, and features stone construction, multiple flatheaded window openings along the side elevations, and a front vestibule. The schoolhouse was originally one storey, but a second storey was introduced in 1875 to accommodate the growing student population.

The Gibraltar School at 11999 Fifth Line has historical and associative value due to its associations with the early educational system in the community of Limehouse. The student population began to grow with the establishment of Common School Act and the Ontario School Act, which introduced rates levied to support and construct new schools and later abolished the former fees for public schools and made attendance compulsory for children ages 7 to 12. In response, many communities took advantage of these government grants to build and operate new schools. Additionally, as Limehouse began to thrive as a community, there was a need to construct another classroom for incoming pupils.

The property also has associations with Reverend John McColl. Reverend John McColl attended Gibraltar in 1860 and later attended Waterloo School. Reverend McColl graduated from the University of Toronto in 1870, and the Theological Seminary of Princeton, New Jersey, in 1873. Additionally, the property has associations with Dr. James Lindsay, who was born in Limehouse and remained in the community before leaving to study medicine. After graduating, Lindsay later moved to Guelph to work as a physician and a surgeon. Once Dr. Lindsay retired, he returned to the old Lindsay family homestead in Limehouse and resided on the property until his death. He was an active member with the Presbyterian Church.

The Gibraltar School at 11999 Fifth Line is important in defining, maintaining, and supporting the rural character of the community of Limehouse. The former Gibraltar Schoolhouse is physically, visually, and historically linked to its surroundings as an early schoolhouse that accommodated pupils from Limehouse, from the 1860s to the 1960s. Gibraltar Schoolhouse is the only schoolhouse located in Limehouse and is well-known to local residents as a point of reference and a local landmark.

The identified heritage attributes of the property at 11999 Fifth Line, Limehouse, that contribute to its physical and design value include:

- The setback, location, and orientation of the schoolhouse along Fifth Line in the community of Limehouse within the Town of Halton Hills;
- The scale, form, and massing of the c.1864, two-storey stone schoolhouse with gable roof and staggered stone quoins;
- Materials, including the stone construction, sills, lintels and detailing;
- On the front (southwest) elevation:
  - o The central vestibule with a gable roof, flatheaded window opening with limestone sill and lintel, and the flatheaded doorway with limestone lintel;
  - o Multiple flatheaded window openings with limestone sills and lintels; and,
- On the side (northwest and southeast) elevations:
  - o Multiple flatheaded window openings with limestone sills and lintels.

The identified heritage attribute of the property at 11999 Fifth Line, Limehouse, that contributes to its historical and associative value includes:

- The legibility of the existing property as a late-nineteenth-century vernacular Ontario rural schoolhouse along Fifth Line within the community of Limehouse in the Town of Halton Hills.
