SCHEDULE "A"REASONS FOR DESIGNATION*70 The Esplanade: Greey's Toronto Mill Furnishings Works FactoryDescription

The property at 70 The Esplanade is recommended for designation under Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act for its cultural heritage value and interest. The property is located on the northwest corner of The Esplanade and Church Street. Built as the main factory for Greey's Toronto Mill Furnishing Works, the site was included on the City of Toronto Inventory of Heritage Properties in 2004.

Cultural Heritage Value

The cultural heritage value of Greey's Toronto Mill Furnishings Works Factory is related to its architectural and contextual significance as part of a well-designed 19th century factory complex. First recorded in the city directories in 1882, the building was expanded twice, with the west portion added by 1890 and the fourth floor in 1903. With the neighbouring Greey's Factory Building at 6 Church Street, Greey's Toronto Mill Furnishings Works Factory contributes to the character of the St. Lawrence community as it developed as a commercial and manufacturing district south of Front Street.

Heritage Attributes

The heritage attributes of the building that relate to its cultural heritage value as a well-designed late 19th century factory are found on the south and east elevations (facing The Esplanade and Church Street, respectively) and the roof. Extending four stories beneath a flat roof with brick corbelling, the structure is clad in red brick. Brick pilasters divide the east and south elevations into bays. The door and window openings in the first floor have been altered, with five original window openings on the south wall (now covered). In the upper stories, pairs of segmental-arched window opening have brick voussoirs, with contrasting yellow brick applied to those in the second and third floors.
