✓ Ontario Heritage Foundation.

Take notice that the Council of the Corporation of the City of Toronto, on the 20th, 22nd and 23rd days of June, 1977, decided to designate the lands and buildings, known municipally as No.10 King's College Road, as a property of architectural value or interest under The Ontario Heritage Act, 1974, 1974 S.O. Chapter 122.

Short Statement of the Reasons for the Proposed Designation:

No.10 King's College Road (Sanford Fleming Building).
The Sanford Fleming Building is recommended for designation for architectural reasons. Built in 1907 as the Physics Laboratory building, it was designed by the prominent architectural firm of Darling and Pearson in contextual harmony with Convocation Hall, also designed by their firm. The central curved feature of the east facade is distinctive and the detailing of materials is especially well related to the established scale of buildings on the Front Campus of the University.

Notice of objection to the designation may be served on the Clerk within thirty days of the 8th day of July, 1977.
(File 1337).

DATED at Toronto this 8th day of July, 1977.
