SCHEDULE "A"

Reasons for Designation:

This storey-and-a-half house was built before 1861 entirely of lumber cut and milled on the premises, where the Badgley's operated a steam sawmill as early as 1852.

The main block of the house, which is unusual in plan, elevation and detail, is said to have been modelled after "Malahide", Colonel Thomas Talbot's house near Port Stanley. It is nearly in original condition.

Furthermore, the house is located beside Highway #3, which is a provincially designated Heritage Highway.

Architectural Items Designated:

Two castellated chimney's cedar shingle roof, cornice and freize, pine clapboard siding, front verandah, original pine window frames, sash, fasteners, and interior shutters, original interior woodwork including stairs, doors with hardware, mantelpieces, fireplaces, and pine floors, and interior plaster walls and ceilings of main block.

SCHEDULE "B"

All and singular that certain parcel or tract of Land situate lying and being in the Town of Haldimand, in the Regional Municipality of Haldimand-Norfolk, and Province of Ontario, formerly in the Township of North Cayuga, in the County of Haldimand, and being composed of the South half of lot number 6, in the First Concession North of Talbot Road, in the Town of Haldimand, save and except for one acre be the same more or less, in the southwest part of Lot 6, in the first Concession north of Talbot Road, in the said former Township, and being more particularly described as follows:

COMMENCING at a post planted at the south west angle of the said lot;

THENCE North 73 Degrees east following the north side of Talbot Road 165 feet;

THENCE North 16 1/2 Degrees west a distance of 264 feet;

THENCE South 73 Degrees west 165 feet to the road allowance between the said lot and Lot 7;

THENCE South 16 1/2 Degrees east 264 feet to the place of beginning.
