Dear Sir:

Re: Designated Property
The Laskey Hotel
15 Port Union Road

Council has received an application from the owners of the Laskey Hotel, located at 15 Port Union Road, Scarborough, to demolish the building. Council has decided to refuse the application and to prohibit any work to demolish or remove any building or structure on the property for a period of 180 days from the date of its decision, this date being September 21, 1981.

Yours truly,

J. J. Poots,
Clerk.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ONTARIO HERITAGE ACT, 1974,
S.O. CHAPTER 122

AND IN THE MATTER OF THE LANDS AND PREMISES MUNICIPALLY
KNOWN AS 15 PORT UNION ROAD, IN THE BOROUGH OF SCARBOROUGH, IN THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DESIGNATE

TO:

Ontario Heritage Foundation ✓

Take notice that the Council of the Corporation of the Borough of Scarborough has decided to designate the lands and buildings, known municipally as 15 Port Union Road, as a property of architectural value or interest under The Ontario Heritage Act, 1974, S.O., Chapter 122.

Short Statement of the Reasons for the Proposed Designation:

"Laskey Hotel". This building is the last nineteenth century hotel structure left in Scarborough. Built in the typical hotel style of that era, the building is a duplicate of a Helliwell's Hotel which was destroyed by fire and of the Halfway House relocated at Pioneer Village. Architecturally the building is a good example of an early nineteenth century Upper Canadian vernacular hotel structure, featuring two storey dimensions with medium pitched gable roof and a symmetrical five bay south front facade with two-storey veranda.

Notice of objection to the designation may be served on the Clerk within thirty days of April 5, 1978.

DATED at Scarborough this 5th day of April, 1978.

J. J. Poots,
Clerk.
