NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DESIGNATE

To:

✓ Ontario Heritage Foundation.

Take notice that the Council of the Corporation of the City of Toronto, on the 14th day of August, 1978, decided to designate the lands and buildings, known municipally as No.73 Gormley Avenue, as a property of historical value or interest under The Ontario Heritage Act, 1974, 1974 S.O. Chapter 122.

Short Statement of the Reasons for the Proposed Designation:

73 Gormley Avenue. This building is recommended for designation for historical reasons. From 1911 to 1921 this house was the residence of the famous Canadian portrait painter, Sir Edmund Wyly Grier, whose works included portraits of Sir John A. Macdonald, Sir Oliver Mowat and many other notables. The present house, a white clapboard cottage, was built c.1905 and was the first house on the Street and one of the earliest in the district.

Notice of objection to the designation may be served on the Clerk within thirty days of the 1st day of September, 1978. (File 1558).

DATED at Toronto this 1st day of September, 1978.

Roy V. Henderson
City Clerk
