✓ Ontario Heritage Foundation.

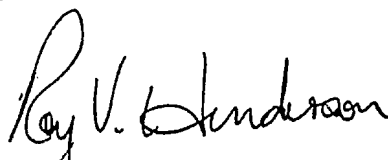

Take notice that the Council of the Corporation of the City of Toronto, on the 15th day of October, 1975, decided to designate the lands and buildings, known municipally as 129 and 133-135 King Street East, as a property of architectural value or interest under The Ontario Heritage Act, 1974, S.O. Chapter 122.

Short Statement of the Reasons for the Proposed Designation:

Originally T. Thompson & Sons (York Belting Co.) 129, 133-135 King Street East (S) 1887, addition 1888, The T. Thompson & Sons Building is recommended for designation on architectural grounds as a fine example of the commercial-warehousing buildings built in the last quarter of the nineteenth century. Given architectural form by the two great arches with Romanesque Revival detailing that light the interior, the building is also significant in the historic development of building technology as an early use of extensive iron structure to support the facade. Though notably different in style from its late Georgian neighbours, the building still preserves the line and scale of the King Street streetscape, the essential complement to St. James' Cathedral and St. Lawrence Hall.

Notice of objection to the designation may be served on the Clerk within thirty days of January 16th, 1976. (Reference File 0845).

DATED at Toronto this 16th day of January, 1976.

ROY V. HENDERSON,
City Clerk.
