REASONS FOR THE DESIGNATION:

This building, based on the Georgian Style of Architecture, is a large, two storey square plan house with double thick brick walls made of hand pressed red brick; its design was very popular with traditional homes in the mid 19th Century.

The Crown registered this property under its name in 1827. Levi Wilson became the owner of the property in 1850. It should be noted that Mr. Wilson was the first Sheriff of the District of Halton and may have kept prisoners in the basement of the house.
