Description

Statement of Significance

Description of Historic Place: i.e. Description of Property	7823 Bay Line is located on the north side of Bay Line between Bear Line Road and Owen Road in the Township of Dover, Municipality of Chatham-Kent. The two-storey red-brick residential building was constructed circa 1897.
Heritage Value: i.e. Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest	Historical or Associative Value: 7823 Bay Line reflects a long history of agriculture in the Municipality of Chatham-Kent having been built circa 1897 in the rural agricultural setting of Dover Township. In 1874, George Kennedy an Irish-Canadian farmer from Sheffield Twp., Lennox-Addington County, Ontario, bought Lot 18 in the 13th Concession of Dover Township. Although he owned the land he did not immediately move to Dover Township. Instead he rented the land to his fellow Irish farmers, many of whom were from the same region of Eastern Ontario where he lived. In 1896, George Kennedy, his wife Martha and their children moved to Dover Township and lived in a log cabin for one year while the brick house was being built. It should also be noted that George Kennedy's brother Adam Kennedy came to Kent County and built an identical home which is located at 26165 St. Clair Road (Hwy 40) in Chatham Township. George Kennedy and his family were a prominent, well known and respected farming family for many years in Dover Township. The farm remained in the Kennedy family until 1950 when it was sold to Reginald and Betty Rikley. After Reginald's death, Betty remarried to Thomas Edward "Ed" Chinnick, an influential farmer and former Reeve and councilor for Chatham Township. Betty then severed the surrounding farm land from the residence and sold the home in 1973. Design or Physical Value: 7823 Bay Line is a good example of the Queen Anne style of architecture and has always been maintained as a single family home. The exterior of the building displays a high degree of craftsmanship with its complex massing and varied roof structure. Of note are the decorative brackets, bay windows on two stories, varied fenestration and wrap-around porch with spindlework and other intricate woodwork adorning the porch supports. The original Oak, uniquely large, custom-built main and rear entrance doors still remain. The slate shingled roof is notable as is the decorative gingerbread in the front gable. The addition of square cast iron tie rod ends is unique as this element is seldom found on residential structures, especially the more delicate Queen Anne style homes. The interior Oak woodwork throughout the first and second floor of the early portion of the structure is original and intact. All of the rooms exhibit intricate details from 12-inch baseboards to wainscoting, door and window surrounds with corner blocks, and chair rails. The solid oak decorative staircase that leads from the first to second floor is exceptional, as are the original five-panelled interior doors on the first and second floors. Contextual Value: Located at 7823 Bay Line, this good example of a Queen Anne style farm house is located in a rural agricultural setting in the Township of Dover. The home is prominently sited close to the road, allowing for easy admiration from passersby. The structure is surrounded on all sides by farmland and set amongst a growth of trees that offers a break from the strong winds that blow across the surrounding open fields. Sources: Kent Agricultural Hall of Fame Municipality of Chatham-Kent Land Registry Records Well-Preserved, 1992.
