REASONS FOR DESIGNATION

The Chatham-Kent Museum
59 William Street North
CHATHAM, Ontario

The Chatham-Kent Museum architecturally is referred to as the Nameless Vernacular of the 1880's and 90's characterized by gable brackets, multi storey projecting bays and a style variation originating with leading foreign architects.

Historically the property belonged to the Milner family, owners of a prominent carriage works and later a furniture company. Mrs. Milner was a recognized artist whose works are housed in the museum.
