SCHEDULE "A"
Building Inventory Form
Patrick Laferte House

Description of Property:

Building Name:	Patrick Laferte House
Street Location:	1105 Front Road South
County:	Essex
Town:	Town of Amherstburg
Builder:	Patrick Laferte
Ownership:	[REDACTED]
Original Owner:	Patrick Laferte
Original Use	Private Residence
Present Use:	Private residence
Date of Construction:	Between 1879 to 1899

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest:

The Patrick Laferte House's heritage value lies in it being an example of late 19th of the century Queen Anne Victorian architecture as can be seen in the detailing above the windows. The building remains in its original form with the original clapboard siding beneath the present day vinyl siding.

This building was constructed between 1879 and 1899. Architectural details include two colonnaded porches.

The porches and have been rebuilt similar the original design.

The Patrick Laferte House's cultural heritage value lays in its association with its original property owner Captain John Manson, a light house keeper and its subsequent owner Captain Theodore Young a great lakes Captain.

The present owner has in his possession a copy of the original deed which registered the parcel of land to William C Fox.

Description of Heritage Attributes:

Key exterior attributes that embody the heritage value of the Patrick Laferte House include:

- Two story construction in its original form with an intact foundation.
- Original arched and bracketed bay window at the front of the house
- Reconstructed veranda built to the original design
- Original exterior Queen Anne window details have been retained.
- Original wood clapboard siding in place behind the present vinyl siding.
