Dear Sir: Re: Notice of Intention To Designate

The L.A.C.A.C. Committee and the Council are favourable to designating this property for the following reasons:

"This substantial stone farm house with a belvedere on the roof was built around 1850 by Joseph Clark the father of Maggie Clark subject of the famous ballad "When You and I Were Young Maggie", written by George W. Johnson.

This is one of the best preserved homes of this period in Glanbrook Township, and in addition to its historical value is of architectural significance."

Yours very truly,
Craig Switzer
