REASONS FOR DESIGNATION OF THE OSWALD RESIDENCE

The former Oswald Residence (c. 1835) is an excellent example of the "Regency style" cottage built primarily in the decades of the thirties and forties of the last century in Canada. An elaborate iron fence supported in stone, imported from England and remaining to-day in good condition surrounds the yard on two sides. James Oswald was a prominent businessman in the Niagara area, having run the Whirlpool House as an Inn, as well as a brewery on the road to St. David's. He was once accused of murdering one of the patrons of his Inn but was acquitted when his "victim" showed up in court.
