Take notice that the Council of the City of Toronto, at its meeting held on February 4, 2003, decided to designate the lands and buildings known municipally as 691 Scarlett Road (St. Matthias Anglican Church) (Etobicoke North) (Ward 2).

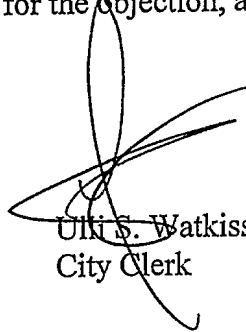

Reasons for Designation

The property at 691 Scarlett Road is recommended for designation for its cultural heritage value or interest. The property at 691 Scarlett Road is architecturally and historically significant as a centre for local rescue efforts following Hurricane Hazel in 1954 that remains a landmark in the Westmount neighbourhood of Etobicoke. Located on the southeast corner of Scarlett Road and Kingdom Street, the church dates to 1895 when it was constructed as Holy Trinity (Anglican) Church in Malton. In 1923, the building was relocated to Etobicoke where it is more recently known as the Christadelphian Church.

St. Matthias Anglican Church displays features of the Gothic Revival style. The heritage attributes of the building are the L-shaped plan with a multi-sided apse, the wood construction and cladding (currently concealed), the cross-gable roof with a bell cote, chimney and shed-roofed tail, the west entrance porch, and the pointed-arched and flat-headed window openings with stained glass.

Notice of an objection to the designation may be served on the City Clerk, c/o Mary Casini, Committee Administrator, Etobicoke Community Council, Etobicoke Civic Centre, Main Floor, 399 The West Mall, Toronto, Ontario M9C 2Y2, within thirty days of the 7th of February, 2003, setting out the reason(s) for the objection, and all relevant facts.
