HERITAGE DESIGNATION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Corporation of the City of Waterloo intends to designate the hereinafter mentioned property to be of historic and architectural importance within the meaning of Section 29 of the Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1990.

The subject lands are known as the former Seagram Museum and are located at 57 Erb Street West, Waterloo. It is recommended three facades (west, north and east) and the remaining interior barrel racking system of the original c.1878 Seagram Bonded Warehouse, being a portion of the building complex located at 57 Erb Street West, be designated for cultural-heritage-architectural purposes, pursuant to the Ontario Heritage Act."

If you wish to obtain a copy of the staff report which provides detailed information about the proposed designation and architectural details, please contact Shirley Hayes, Secretary, Local Architectural Conservation Advisory Committee, 747-8773.

Notice of objection to this designation may be served on the Clerk of the Corporation of the City of Waterloo within thirty days of this notice. Any notice of objection shall indicate the reasons for the objection and all relevant facts. The last day for filing an objection is October 4, 2002.

DATED at Waterloo this 4th day of September, 2002.

Fred Dobbs, City Clerk
City of Waterloo
