SCHEDULE "B" TO BY-LAW 22934

REASONS FOR THE DESIGNATION OF "CHRISTIAN REESOR HOUSE"

The Christian Reesor House is recommended for designation for historical reasons as the farmstead of the Reesor family, a Pennsylvania Mennonite family, who settled in the north-west corner of the City of Scarborough in the early 1800's.

The Christian Reesor House is recommended for designation for architectural reasons as an excellent example of an early Mennonite farm home of the type which were built in the area during the later nineteenth century.
