NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DESIGNATE

TAKE NOTICE THAT the Council of The Corporation of the Town of Kingsville intends to designate, under Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act, the property known as 121 Laurel Street, legally described as Part of Lot 54, Plan 227, in the Town of Kingsville, in the County of Essex and Province of Ontario.

Description of Property:

Constructed in 1902, the Henry P. Scratch House is a one-storey brick house in the Gothic Cottage style, located on the east side of Laurel Street in the original Town of Kingsville.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value:

The Henry P. Scratch House's cultural heritage value lies in it being a fine example of Gothic Revival architecture, in particular Gothic Cottage as evidenced by the steeply-pitched front gable, hipped roof, segmented arches and gingerbread on porches. Its cultural heritage value also lies in its association with Henry P. Scratch, a successful tobacco farmer and grandson of Capt. Nicholas Lytle. Lytle had fought in the Battle of Lundy's Lane, the battle that ended the American invasion of Canada in the War of 1812.

Description of heritage attributes:

Key attributes that embody the heritage value of the Henry P. Scratch House include many examples of fine craftsmanship and materials unique to Essex County.

Turned wood pillars on front and side porches
Wooden shutters (not original)
Fieldstone foundation
Orange brick
Original hardwood flooring
Interior doors, baseboards and casings in Georgian pine
