NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DESIGNATE

TAKE NOTICE THAT the Council of The Corporation of the Town of Kingsville intends to designate, under Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act, the property legally described as Part of Lot 1, Concession 1, Western Division, known municipally as 62 Division St. South., in the Town of Kingsville, in the Province of Ontario.

Description of Property:

Constructed in 1908, The Epworth Parsonage is 2 ½-storey brick house in the Colonial Revival style located on west side of Division Street South in the original Town of Kingsville.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

The cultural heritage value of the Epworth Parsonage lies in its association with the early Methodist Church that dates back in the area to 1817. The land on which the Epworth Parsonage is built was part of a half-acre lot on which the Methodist Church was built in 1891. Many of the Town's early leaders and businessmen were trustees of the church who made the decision to purchase the land for the church and later, to build a home for its minister. The Church's growing flock was a testament to the town's increasing prosperity. The building became a United Church holding, the United Church being formed in 1925 when Presbyterian congregations joined with the General Council of Union Churches of which the Methodists were a part.

The parsonage was designed by Kingsville architect Thomas Jenner who designed many of the notable commercial, ecclesiastical and residential buildings throughout Essex County.

The home's brickwork was done by the Woodiwiss Brothers of Kingsville using brick from the Miner Brickyard.
