SCHEDULE "A"
TO BYLAW # 86-16

Property Designated:

87 Clarence Street, Lanark, described as the west half of the east half of Part Lot 7, Plan 320, Village of Lanark.

SCHEDULE "B"

Reasons for Designation:

The inherent cultural and historical significance as a valuable Lanark heritage in its original condition since it was built circa 1880;

The architectural significance of the veranda, because of its unique fretwork, decorative carving and sloping floor;

Lanark's noted carriage maker, cabinet maker and carpenter Mr. James Drysdale, was probably its builder. (Reference: Local Directory, 1884, Public Archives of Canada);

This house is the first of only two (2) houses left on Clarence Street East after the village-wide fire of 1959.
