NOTICE OF HERITAGE DESIGNATION

42 Lakeshore Road West, Oakville, Ontario

TAKE NOTICE that Oakville Town Council, on June 9, 2009 resolved to pass By-law 2009-074 to designate Plan 1 Block 68 Lot 13 municipally at 42 Lakeshore Road West under Section 29 of the Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. 18, as a property of cultural heritage value and interest.

Cultural Heritage Value and Interest:

This property meets numerous criteria required for designation under Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act. The site is culturally significant because of its design and physical value, historical and associative value, and contextual value.

Design or Physical Value

The house at 42 Lakeshore Road West is an example of modest housing built at the time for tradesmen working in the area. Unlike a full two-storey structure, it allowed a reduction in taxes while providing a comparable accommodation. It is one of the few remaining examples of its kind and is important in defining and maintaining the historical and aesthetic character of the area.

Historical or Associative Value

The subject property is associated with the McCraney family, one of the first settler families in Oakville. William McCraney, born in 1831, was a prominent historical figure in Oakville as a leading member of the Methodist Church, a Common School and Grammar School Trustee, and the Mayor of Oakville from 1872 to 1874.

The property also has strong associations with the various industries that historically operated in the area, including the Marlatt and Armstrong Leather Company on Forsythe Street, which employed many of the area's residents, including past residents of 42 Lakeshore Road West.

Contextual Value

The old Colbourne Street West was the central east-west "main street" and a stage-coach route through Oakville. Local industries employed a large number of carpenters, builders, plumbers, and tradesmen who subsequently established themselves in this area of town.

The Magnolia tree on the property is estimated to be around 90 years old and has continued to serve as a cultural landscape feature with its prolific blooms every spring. The Magnolia tree is considered a visual landmark in defining the character of the area.

Description of Heritage Attributes:

The heritage attributes of the house are as follows:

- Front-facing, basic gable roof with steep slope;
- Side porch with decorative columns and brackets;
- A floor plan that has a greater depth than width;
- An entrance and stair located to one side of the plan resulting in a typical front elevation with four symmetrical openings;
- Six over one window type;
- Simple detailing;
- Square-headed openings with double-hung windows;
- Stucco exterior; and,
- The Magnolia tree.

SCHEDULE "A" TO
BY-LAW 2009-074

In the Town of Oakville in the Regional Municipality of Halton, property description as follows:

McCraney-Robertson House
42 Lakeshore Road West, PLAN 1 BLK 68 LOT 13,
Town of Oakville, Regional Municipality of Halton

SCHEDULE "B" TO
BY-LAW 2009-074

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The McCraney-Robertson House at 42 Lakeshore Road West is recommended for designation under Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act because of its cultural heritage value or interest.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value

Design or Physical Value

The existing structure at 42 Lakeshore Road West has cultural heritage value as an example of modest housing built at the time for tradespeople working in the area. Unlike a full two storey structure, it allowed for a reduction in taxes while providing comparable accommodation. It is one of the few remaining examples of its kind and is important in defining and maintaining the historical and aesthetic character of the area.

Built c.1880, this stucco house has a front gable roof, side porch with decorative wood brackets, historic wood windows, wood trim and wood shutters.

The magnolia tree on the site is thought to be approximately 90 years old and greatly contributes to the property's physical significance.

Historical or Associative Value

The subject property has cultural heritage value for its historical associations with the McCraney family, one of the first settler families in Oakville. William McCraney, born in 1831, was a prominent historical figure in Oakville as a leading member of the Methodist Church, a Common School and Grammer School Trustee, and the Mayor of Oakville from 1872 to 1874.

The property also has strong associations with the various industries that historically operated in the area, including the Marlatt and Armstrong Leather Company on Navy Street, which employed many of the area's residents, including past residents of 42 Lakeshore Road West. One of these residents was Duncan Robertson, who purchased the property in 1910. He worked for the tannery and continued to live in the house after the tannery closed in 1924.

Contextual Value

The McCraney-Robertson House has cultural heritage value for its contextual significance along Lakeshore Road West, formerly known as Colbourne Street West, which was the central east-west “main street” and a stage-coach route through Oakville. Local industries employed a large number of carpenters, builders, plumbers, and tradesmen who subsequently established themselves in this area of town.

The historic magnolia tree on the property has continued to serve as a cultural landscape feature with its prolific blooms every spring. The magnolia tree is considered to be a visual landmark that defines the character of the area.

Description of Heritage Attributes

Key exterior attributes of the house which embody its physical and historical significance include:

The following heritage attributes and applies to all elevations and the roof including all facades, entrances, windows, chimneys, and trim, together with construction materials of wood, brick, metal and glazing, their related building techniques and landscape features:

Exterior Elements of the House:

- The rectangular form of the house;
- A floor plan that has a greater depth than width;
- Front gable roof with steep slope;
- Side porch with decorative columns and brackets;
- Wood windows and wood trim;
- Wood shutters; and
- Stucco cladding and wood trim.

Landscape Elements:

- The magnolia tree, including its trunk, canopy and branches, and the associated underground root system, the extent of which is defined as the “Magnolia Tree Protection Zone” as outlined in Schedule “A”.
