THE CORPORATION OF THE TOWN OF OAKVILLE
BY-LAW 1987-133

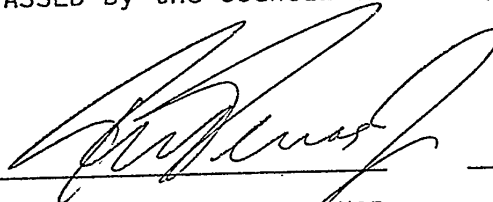

NO. H4167

A by-law to designate certain property as property of historic and architectural value and interest (164 Trafalgar Road)

THE COUNCIL ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

1. The property known municipally as 164 Trafalgar Road is hereby designated as a property of historic and architectural value and interest pursuant to the Ontario Heritage Act, for the reason set out in Schedule "A" to this by-law.
2. The property designated by this by-law is the property described in Schedule "B" attached to this by-law.

PASSED by the Council this 6th, day of August, 1987.

CLERK

SCHEDULE "A"
to By-Law 1987-133

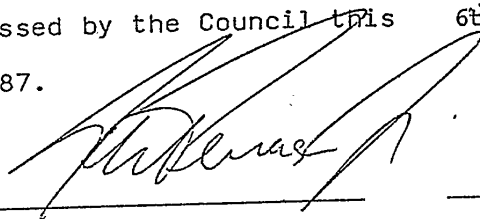

Reason for Designation

This building stands on land originally belonging to William Chisholm, sold in 1839 to his son John Alexander Chisholm, then bequeathed to John's wife Sarah and sold by her to her son Charles Pettit Chisholm in 1891. The present house was built by him between 1891 and 1894.

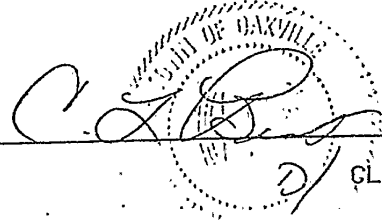

At one time, the house was known as Beaulieu Place in honour of the River Beaulieu in Inverness Shire, Scotland. Erchless Castle, the home of the head of the Chisholm Clan is located on the Beaulieu River.

Although the west wall has been significantly altered over the years, the remaining three facades are noteworthy due to the embellishments present. The gable ends, faced with decorative wooden shingles, still exhibit enormous bargeboards composed of a complex geometric design that includes fans, quatrefoils, and sunburst patterns.

This is Schedule "A" to By-Law 1987-133
passed by the Council this 6th, day of August, 1987.
