Dear Sir:

The Council of the Corporation of the City of Ottawa on the 15th day of November, 1978 enacted various By-laws designating the lands and buildings (on the attached list) in Ottawa, as properties of architectural and historical value or interest under the provisions of The Ontario Heritage Act 1974, Statutes of Ontario, 1974, Chapter 122.

I hereby enclose registered, certified true copies of the By-laws and Notice of By-law that were enacted by City Council on November 15th.

These notices are sent in compliance with the provisions of subsection 6 of Section 29 of the Ontario Heritage Act.

Yours truly,

Evelyne H. Cooper
City Clerk

IN THE MATTER OF The Ontario Heritage Act
1974, Statutes of Ontario, 1974, Chapter
122;

AND IN THE MATTER OF the lands and premises known municipally as 288-290½ St. Patrick Street in the City of Ottawa, in the Province of Ontario.

NOTICE OF BY-LAW

TAKE NOTICE that the Council of The Corporation of the City of Ottawa on the 15th day of November 1978, enacted By-law Number 384-78 designating the lands and buildings known municipally as 288-290½ St. Patrick Street as a property of architectural and historical value or interest under The Ontario Heritage Act 1974, Statutes of Ontario, 1974, Chapter 122.

STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR THE DESIGNATION:

"The two and one-half storey wooden double dwelling at 288-290½ St. Patrick Street is recommended for designation as being of architectural and historical value. Erected between 1846 and 1850 by Thomas Brule, it is a four-bay, pitch roofed structure with the side to the street. Together with its regularity, symmetry, rectangular form, and horizontal character, these characteristics mark it as a continuation of the pre-Victorian Georgian tradition. Again, these characteristics, together with the simplicity of construction, materials, and severity of design identify the structure as a typical vernacular Lowertown building of the lumbering era. The eight-pane casement windows are of particular interest.

Brule worked as a blacksmith and gained some notoriety in connection with the Riots of 1849, having been tried subsequently (but not convicted) on a murder charge. The dwellings were occupied by individuals with French surnames throughout the nineteenth century.
From 1867 to about 1895, the building was owned by Calixte Gareau, a carter, trader, and cab-driver. It remains as one of the outstanding examples of early Bytown."

A copy of this By-law may be obtained at the office of the City Clerk.

DATED at Ottawa this 20th day of January, 1979.

EVELYNE H. COOPER,
City Clerk,
City Hall,
111 Sussex Drive,
Ottawa, Ontario,
K1N 5A1.

A by-law of The Corporation of the City of Ottawa to designate 288-290½ St. Patrick Street to be of historic or architectural value or interest;

WHEREAS The Ontario Heritage Act, 1974, authorizes the Council of a municipality to enact by-laws to designate real property, including all the buildings and structures thereon, to be of historic or architectural value or interest;

AND WHEREAS the Council of The Corporation of the City of Ottawa has caused to be served upon the owner of the lands and premises known as 288-290½ St. Patrick Street, more particularly described in Schedule "A" hereto, and upon the Ontario Heritage Foundation, notice of intention to so designate the aforesaid real property and has caused such notice of intention to be published in The Ottawa Journal newspaper having a general circulation in the City of Ottawa, once a week for three consecutive weeks, namely on September 26th, October 3rd and October 10th, 1978;

AND WHEREAS the reasons for the designation are set out as Schedule "B" hereto;

AND WHEREAS no notice of objection to the said proposed designation has been served upon the Clerk of the municipality;

THEREFORE the Council of The Corporation of the City of Ottawa enacts as follows:-

1. There is designated as being of historic or architectural value or interest the real property, more particularly described in Schedule "A" hereto, known as 288-290½ St. Patrick Street.
2. The City Solicitor is hereby authorized to cause a copy of this by-law to be registered against the property described in Schedule "A" hereto in the proper Land Registry Office.

3. The City Clerk is hereby authorized to cause a copy of this by-law to be served upon the owner of the property described in Schedule "A", and upon the Ontario Heritage Foundation, and to cause notice of this by-law to be published in a newspaper having a general circulation in the City of Ottawa.

4. The schedules attached hereto and marked Schedule "A" and Schedule "B" form part of this by-law and all notations, references and other information contained therein shall be as much a part of this by-law as if all the matters and information set forth by the said schedules were all fully described herein.

GIVEN under the corporate seal of the City of Ottawa this^{15th} day of^{November}..... 1978.
