Nancy Michie

SCHEDULE "A"

TO BY-LAW NO. 6-1989

OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MORRIS

13 Queen's Street

ALL AND SINGULAR that certain parcel or tract of land and premises situate lying and being in the Hamlet of Belgrave, Township of Morris, in the County of Huron and Province of Ontario, and being composed of WPT Lot 1, Plan 161.

SCHEDULE "B"

TO BY-LAW NO. 6-1989

OF THE

CORPORATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF MORRIS

The property located at 13 Queen's Street in the Hamlet of Belgrave is recommended for designation for architectural and historical reasons under Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O., 1980, Chapter 337.

The Queen's Hotel occupies a commanding position on the main street of the Hamlet of Belgrave. Architecturally, this is an imposing yellow brick structure in the 19th century Italianate style, finely proportioned and substantially unaltered on the exterior since it was built. Remnants of the cedar shingle roof are present on the main block, while the original metal shingle roof on the rear wing is intact. Original roof detail of wood freize, and soffits are present on both main block and wing; decorative eaves brackets are in place on two facades of the main block. The hipped roof is flanked by tall brick chimneys with corbelled tops. The windows are segmentally arched and most of the 2/2 sash is in place. An early verandah, with dentillated cornice and hipped roof supported by shaped posts, extends across the main facade.

Historically, the Queen's Hotel was one of two hotels operating in Belgrave in 1865, accomodating travellers on the trail between Clinton and the northern part of the Queen's Bush. It was built by Christopher Morley, and in its early days a hall in the building was used for public meetings. The licensed hotel was managed by William Scandrett, who assumed ownership in 1882. At that time commercial travellers used the hotel as a place to display their wares. After prohibition was imposed by a local option vote in 1913, the hotel was taken over by William Geddes, who ran it as a temperance house. A branch office of the Canadian Bank of Commerce occupied a portion of the building from 1916 until the depression.
