REASONS FOR DESIGNATION

THE MILLER'S OVEN

( This two-storey frame building which dates from c.1880 has been an important landmark in Manotick. Originally built as a general store, in the late 1920's it became the Oddfellow's Hall, also housing a barbershop, pool-room, and the local library. Recently, it was ( adapted for use as a tea and lunch room, bake shop and meeting hall. It is considered that it's attractive architectural style and important historical associations with the development of the Village merit its designation as a Rideau Township Heritage building.
