SCHEDULE "B"

STATEMENT OF REASON FOR DESIGNATION

The property at 84 Stewart Street is recommended for designation as being of architectural interest. Built prior to 1874, its overall exterior appearance is that of a one and one-half storey clapboard cottage with a broad front gable. The building is stylistically related to the Rideau Valley vernacular. The house is set behind 86 Stewart Street and appears to pre-date the development of Stewart Street as an urban residential area. It is noted that the above does not make any reference to the interior of the building.
