Dear Sir/Madam:

Re: Amendment of Robertson/Mels Heritage Designating By-Law

Please be advised that an amendment to the above-noted Heritage Designating By-Law has been necessary. It was recently discovered that former Township of Delhi By-Law 35-91, adopted on May 6, 1991 and registered in the Norfolk Land Registry Office on May 10, 1991 as Instrument No. NR479086, incorrectly referenced the heritage designation to a total of nine properties. The designation should have been applied to only the Robertson/Mels residence located on Part Lot 11, Concession 7, Geographic Township of Windham, Part 2, Plan 37R-8591, Norfolk County, PIN 50261-0260(LT).

Norfolk County Council deemed it necessary to amend the Designating By-Law in order to correct the legal description of the heritage property. In accordance with the Ontario Heritage Act, affected property owners of the proposed amendment were notified and no objections were filed with the Clerk.

To facilitate the above-noted Amendment, By-Law 35-91 was repealed in its entirety by Norfolk County By-Law 2009-05 and a new Norfolk County Designating By-Law 2009-06, for the Robertson/Mels Residence only, was adopted. By-Laws 2009-05 and 2009-06, were registered in the Norfolk Land Registry Office on January 19, 2009 as Instruments NK20922 and NK20924 respectively.

Enclosed please herewith please find copies of the above-noted By-Laws.

If you have any questions, please contact the undersigned.

Yours truly

SCHEDULE 'A' TO BY-LAW 2009-06

REASONS FOR DESIGNATION

The Robertson/Mels residence built on or before the 1870's, is a two storey, stone house constructed in the style unique to the prosperous Ontario farmer. Details of the Italianate style were applied to a basic, square frame with frontispiece and openings symmetrically arranged. Paired brackets support the eaves and elaborate upper lower and lower façade entrances draw attention to the frontispiece.

Interior noteworthy features are the five pointed star medallion in the living room ceiling, the French doors and narrow recessed panels of the window and door reveals.

Designation under the Heritage Act of the Robertson/Mels residence, located on Part Lot 11, Concession 7, Geographic Township of Windham, Part 2, Plan 37R-8591, PIN 50261-0260(LT), Norfolk County, is recommended by the Heritage Committee. The following features are noted specifically for their architectural significance.

- Exterior - all stone elevations and foundations,
 - all original windows, doors, sidelights, transoms,
 - roofline brackets, cornice and finial,
 - double, capped chimney,
 - verandah and upper balcony

- Interior - living room star medallion,
 - kitchen and upper staircase French doors,
 - door and window reveals of dining room, living room and entry hall
