Dear Sir/Madam:

Re: Notice of Designation of Two Buildings within Norfolk County under the Ontario Heritage Act

Please be advised that the Council of The Corporation of Norfolk County intends to designate the following two buildings within Norfolk County under the Ontario Heritage Act:

1. S.S. No. 11 Teeterville/Teeterville Women's Institute Building, 194 Teeter Street, Teeterville, Ontario.
2. Port Dover Lighthouse, end of the West Pier at entrance to Port Dover Harbour, Port Dover, Ontario.

Enclosed please find copies of Staff Reports D.C.S. 16-14 (S.S. No. 11 Teeterville/Teeterville Women's Institute Building) and D.C.S. 16-15 (Port Dover Lighthouse) with accompanying Heritage Designation Reports attached to each which outline the heritage attributes of these buildings and the reasons for their designation.

Also, enclosed please find a copy of the Notices of Intention for Designation to be published in the Simcoe Times-Reformer on March 9, 2016 and the Lakeshore Shopper on March 10, 2016.

A Notice of Objection to these designations may be served on the Clerk no later than the 8th day of April, 2016.

If you have any questions, please contact the undersigned.

Yours truly,

ONTARIO HERITAGE ACT

NOTICE OF INTENTION

TO DESIGNATE THE S.S. No. 11, TEETERVILLE/TEETERVILLE WOMEN'S INSTITUTE BUILDING

TAKE NOTICE THAT the Council of The Corporation of Norfolk County intends to pass a By-Law pursuant to the provisions of the Ontario Heritage Act, to designate the S.S. No. 11 Teeterville/Teeterville Women's Institute Building located on Lots, 9, 10, 14 and 15, Block 6, Plan 47B, municipally known as 194 Teeter Street, Teeterville, Ontario, within Norfolk County, as being of cultural heritage value or interest.

The former Teeterville S.S. No. 11 School, now known as Teeterville Women's Institute Hall, is recognized as a building of historical, cultural and architectural significance to the rural community of Teeterville, being a well-preserved example of Classical Revival architecture, representing proudly the collective efforts of the community to preserve their heritage and the importance of a building to the life of a community.

The following building features are specifically noted for their architectural significance and warrant protection under the Ontario Heritage Act:

- The exterior north, south and west elevations including the board and batten cladding, the belfry, gables, fascia boards, trim and windows.

Further information respecting the proposed designation is available at the Clerk's office, Norfolk County Administration Building, 50 Colborne Street South, Simcoe.

Any person who objects to the proposed designation may serve on the Clerk of Norfolk County not later than the 8th day of April, 2016 a notice of objection setting out the reason for objection and all relevant facts.

DATED at Norfolk County this 9th day of March, 2016.
