SCHEDULE 'A'

TO BY-LAW NO. 50/85

ALL AND SINGULAR that certain parcel or tract of land and premises, situate, lying and being in the Township of Rideau (formerly in the Township of Marlborough), in the Regional Municipality of Ottawa-Carleton and Province of Ontario and BEING COMPOSED of the rear one-half of Lot Five (5), Concession Four (4), in the said Township of Rideau.

REASONS FOR DESIGNATION

Designation is recommended for architectural merit. The house is a fine example of the stone houses of the 1865-1870 period when the proportions of the earlier designs became somewhat attenuated - i.e. roof pitches became a bit steeper, gables sharper and window openings narrower. The inclusion of the flat headed Palladian window is interesting too as a design rarely seen in this area. The house has been virtually unaltered on the exterior and very well maintained.

While the driveshed is not recommended for inclusion in the designation, the owner should be encouraged to preserve and maintain it as one of few remaining in the Township.
